SB 347 - HB 552

February 19, 2003

SUMMARY OF BILL: Currently the Board of Medical Examiners accepts several national licensure tests including the United States Medical Licensing Examination. Under this bill, a person who completes Step One of the USML exam would have seven years from the date of completion of Step One in which to complete the examination. Current regulations require all three steps to be completed within seven years.
